

Bay – Body of water connected to an ocean or lake with a shore line

Estuary – where river water and seawater meet; a salty river

Tributary – small river that flows into a bigger body of water

Watershed – line of hills/mountains where rivers drain into a bigger body of water

Culture – behavior of a people – religion language, food, beliefs

Agriculture – growing crops to sell for money

Custom – the way a group of people does something; a tradition

Habitat – place where a plant or animal naturally live or grows

Colony – group of people who settle in a distant land and keep the government of their home country

Voyage – a long trip taken in a boat to get somewhere

Bay – Body of water connected to an ocean or lake with a shore line

Estuary – where river water and seawater meet; a salty river

Tributary – small river that flows into a bigger body of water

Watershed – line of hills/mountains where rivers drain into a bigger body of water

Culture – behavior of a people – religion language, food, beliefs

Agriculture – growing crops to sell for money

Custom – the way a group of people does something; a tradition

Habitat – place where a plant or animal naturally live or grows

Colony – group of people who settle in a distant land and keep the government of their home country

Voyage – a long trip taken in a boat to get somewhere